Murphy's Cove to Lodge's Pond Trail

Hike Discovery
www.hikediscovery.com

A photographers paradise, this 7.7 km coastal trail is rated moderate and has a variety of headlands that provide viewing platforms for surrounding communities, seabirds and whales. The halfway point provides a lookout from which one can view the Green Island Lighthouse and one will also pass through the resettled community of Murphy's Cove.

Catalina Harbour

Murphy's Cove

Burnt Cove

Green Island

N48°29'43.95
W53°04'45.41

YOU ARE HERE

To Route 230

Port Union

Lodge's Pond

Back Cove

Trinity Bay

Be sure to check out other trails in our network.

LEGEND

- Hiking level: Moderate
- Main Trail
- Public Road
- Parking
- Donation Box

SHOW YOU CARE

- You can support the trail with a donation. Please use the box near the kiosk.

TRAIL ETIQUETTE

- Please stay on the trail to prevent erosion.
- Stay away from the edges of cliffs.
- Pack out what you pack in.
- Do not build fires.
- Please leash and clean up after your dog.
- Take nothing but photographs.
- Supervise children with whom you travel.

IMPORTANT TRAIL NOTES

- Difficulty level: Moderate
- Length: 7.7 km
- Highlights: Green Island & Murphy's Cove
- The trail may be slippery in wet weather. Please wear appropriate footwear and walk with care.
- The trail is not intended to be hiked in icy or snowy conditions.
- While we make an effort to maintain the trail, all hikers walk at their own risk.

WELCOME